

ADH175-1: Currais - Marcolina

23ha and 16.5ha plots with planning permission

Two plots, totalling 39.5 hectares, and each with planning permission for a 250m² single-storey house.

There are two spring water supplies on the property, and a public spring and mains electricity are just a few meters from the border.

This big property in the north east Alentejo is only a few minutes drive from the beautiful historic town of Castelo de Vide and roughly 15km from Spain.

PLOT 1: "Currais de São Paulo"

23 hectares of land.

The plot is fenced and mostly stone walled, with its own access (2 separate entrances).

At the moment the land is grazed by cows so it is an ideal spot for keeping animals. There are lots of cork oak trees and stunning views.

Stone storage building.

Planning permission for a 250m² bungalow.

PLOT 2: "Tapada de Marcolina"

16.5 hectares of land.

The plot is completely fenced, with its own access.

It borders a stream, has lots of oak trees, beautiful views and a middle age round stone dwelling and an outbuilding.

Outline planning permission for a 250m² bungalow.

Price: 175,000 euros
