

ANM220: Quinta do Lago

Beautifully restored old farmhouse, plus a second house, on 1.1 hectares

Quinta do Lago has a charming old farmhouse plus a second, more modern, house.

The 3 storey ancient farmhouse has been fully restored. It retains many original features and has 50cm thick stone walls. The house is equipped with central heating with both gas and wood.

The renovated farmhouse comprises: Ground floor: Wide kitchen with river-stone floor First floor: bathroom, three further rooms, bright library with balcony Third floor: two rooms

The second house is a modern house built on the original stable for animals and has kept the open space structure with a kitchen, two further rooms plus an open-plan space and three toilets. This house is built on only one floor and it's ideal for an atelier or for renting to tourists.

The quinta's grounds are circa 11,000m² (1.1 hectares) - offering pleasant, private, and peaceful surroundings with include a small forest, fruit trees and centuries-old oaks, and plenty of space for agriculture and animals.

Located near the Serra da Lousã, Conimbriga, and the famous wine area of Bairrada, Quinta do Lago is circa 170km from Lisbon and 50km from Coimbra. This region of the interior of Portugal offers the comfort of the proximity with important locations of Portugal and also the beauty and charm of landscapes that characterise this region.
